

Song Title:

Clarity

Artist:

Rachel

Single

At times I feel like I'm down here all alone I know it's not true just need to find my way back home to You. So much more confusion every single day voices that are whispering today is not your day and you're wasting away. Show me the place where You want me to be reveal Your reasons for creating me I've been searching for so long but every turn just feels so wrong oh Hashem sing with me the song of clarity. I wanna grow and I wanna fill my role I am asking questions need directions to my goal connection with my soul they say I've got a mission I hear it all the time but how can I define it decide which path is mine I'm searching for a sign.

At times I feel Like I'm down here all alone
I know it's not true
Just need to find my way back home
To You

So much more confusion
Every single day
Voices that are whispering
Today is not your day
And you're wasting away

Show me the place where You want me to be
Reveal Your reasons for creating me
I've been searching for so long
But every turn just feels so wrong
Oh Hashem sing with me
The song of clarity

#INSTRUMENTAL

I wanna grow
And I wanna fill my role
I am asking questions
Need directions to my goal
Connection with my soul

They say I've got a mission
I hear it all the time
But how can I define it
Decide which path is mine
I'm searching for a sign

Show me the place where You want me to
Reveal Your reasons for creating me
I've been searching for so long
But every turn just feels so wrong
Oh Hashem sing with me
The song of clarity

#INSTRUMENTAL

Thank You Hashem
You're my clarity

Show me the place where You want me to
Reveal Your reasons for creating me
I've been searching for so long
But every turn just feels so wrong
Oh Hashem sing with me
