

Song Title:
Grateful
Artist:
Ari Lesser
Single

Same as Sync

I Give thanks to the Universal One
Give thanks for the moon and stars and sun
Give thanks for the Earth on which we live
Give thanks for the bounty she can give

Give thanks for the tree and the fruit it grows
Give thanks for the cup that overflows
Give thanks for the food and drink and air
Give thanks there's more than enough to share

Give thanks for the extra we can spare
Give thanks for the clothes we have to wear
Give thanks for the comfort of our beds
Give thanks for the roof above our heads

There's so much I'm grateful for
Today I cannot ask for more
I have my heart my soul my strength
This life is blessed so I give thanks

Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Thank You Hashem

I give thanks to the Only Source Of All
Give thanks for the big and for the small
Give thanks from the lows to the highest height
Give thanks for the dark and for the light

Give thanks for the times of joy and song
Give thanks for the pain that keeps us strong
Give thanks because we're still alive
Give thanks this moment has arrived

Give thanks our path has brought us here
Give thanks we lived another year
Give thanks for the past we left behind
And give thanks for the future we will find

There's so much I'm grateful for
Today I cannot ask for more
I have my heart my soul my strength
This life is blessed so I give thanks
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Thank You Hashem

Thanks to the Infinite Most High
Give thanks no matter how or why
Give thanks in every time and place
Give thanks we're part of the human race
Give thanks for the people that we meet
Give thanks for the neighbors on our street
Give thanks for the teachers that we had
Give thanks for every mom and dad

Give thanks for the family that we got
Give thanks for the friends we like a lot
Give thanks for the ones who we hold dear
Give thanks that those we love are here

There's so much I'm grateful for
Today I cannot ask for more
I have my heart my soul my strength
This life is blessed so I give thanks

Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Thank You Hashem (turn it up)

Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Ai didi daidai dai Thank You Hashem
Thank You Hashem
